

1. Review

Review beginning Phonemic Awareness skills. Remember, phonemic awareness activities can be done with the eyes closed. You do not need to see what you are doing. You need to hear what you are doing. The reader is NOT reading these words. He is manipulating sounds out

Rhyme

The teacher can say the first word in the set and have the reader respond with as many rhyming words as possible. You can give the reader a clue by providing the first sound for any of the words.

cat: bat dat fat gat hat mat nat pat rat sat vat wat ip: dip fip hip kip mip nip pip rip sip tip vip wip zip nut: but cut gut jut gut lut mut nut rut sut tut vut zut net: bet det fet get jet let met pet set vet wet zet not: cot dot got hot jot lot mot not pot rot tot
